

Headquarters & Service Battalion Command Philosophy

A command philosophy states a commander's vision and leadership beliefs for their unit.

Headquarters & Service Battalion (H&SBN) provides command and control, administration, communications, food service, and services to the 1st Marine Logistics Group (MLG).

Vision: H&SBN is the readiest unit in I Marine Expeditionary Force (MEF) to deploy in response to our nation's crises. Mission readiness is measured in

- ✓ MOS proficiency
- ✓ Annual training completion
- ✓ Equipment readiness 90+%
- ✓ Medical/dental readiness 90+%
- ✓ Administrative readiness
- ✓ Ethical conduct
- ✓ Physical fitness
- ✓ Spiritual fitness
- ✓ Family readiness

Leadership beliefs: My approach to leading appreciates ironclad discipline and professionalism.
Where are we on the ladder of accountability?

We do the prep work, stick to the timeline, and figure out how to win with what we have.

Semper Fidelis,

G.C. LUEDTKE

Lieutenant Colonel, United States Marine Corps
Commanding Officer, Headquarters & Service Battalion
