

United States Marine Corps

Equal Opportunity Representative

The Marine Corps is committed to maintaining a culture of dignity, respect, and trust in which all members of the organization are afforded equal treatment and opportunity to achieve their full potential based solely upon individual merit, fitness, intellect, and ability. All Marines will ensure that we cultivate an environment free from prohibited activities and conduct. An environment free from prohibited activities and conduct is critical to mission accomplishment, unit cohesion, and military readiness.

CLB-15

2ndLt Lebron, R. R.

BLDG 22101

Phone 407-520-4470

As your Equal Opportunity Representative, I am committed to providing fair and unbiased assistance to each member of our unit. Feel free to contact me with any questions or concerns.

Official communication with the Equal Opportunity Representative is considered protected.

The individual will always determine which avenue of reporting to use. For more information on report options, refer to MCO 5354.1F or contact the EOR.

Vigilance and engaged leadership are fundamental to identifying, correcting, preventing, and ultimately eliminating prohibited activities and conduct within our institution!